RÉSUMÉ UPDATE WORKSHEET

Section 1: Selected Job Posting

Identify one job posting that you would want to apply for.

Job Posting (Job title and Company)	Required Qualification/ Preferred Qualification	Salary range (if listed)	Job board it was listed on
Instructional Designer	Master's degree in Education or related field; Experience with LMS (Canvas, Blackboard); Knowledge of active learning strategies. Preferred: Experience in higher education; Curriculum development experience; Collaboration skills.)	N/A	Indeed

Section 2: Five Adjustments

Update your résumé so it's tailored to the job posting you selected.

What five adjustments did you make to your résumé?
1) I revised my professional summary to highlight instructional design experience and active learning strategies instead of general teaching experience.
2) Added specific keywords from the job posting (e.g., "learning management systems," "curriculum development," "student engagement") throughout my résumé.
3) Rewrote my teaching experience bullet points to focus on outcomes (e.g., increased student engagement by 20%) rather than just responsibilities.
4) Created a new "Relevant Skills" section that includes LMS platforms (Canvas), curriculum design, and assessment strategies.
5) Reorganized my résumé to place education and relevant experience higher, and removed less relevant part-time work.

Section 3: Explanation

Answer the following question.

How did these changes tailor your résumé for your selected job posting?
These changes made my résumé more aligned with the specific qualifications listed in the job posting. By incorporating relevant keywords and emphasizing my experience with instructional design and active learning, my résumé now directly reflects what the employer is looking for. Highlighting measurable outcomes demonstrates my impact, while reorganizing sections ensures that the most relevant information is easy to find. Overall, the revisions make my
